Concept

We will be outside of an arts museum during daytime, 64 x 70. Featuring the museum building itself, the pavement, and the road. In the pavement there will be trees, bushes, garden lights, benches, trash bins, and lampposts. And in the road there will be a police car parked by the sidewalks.

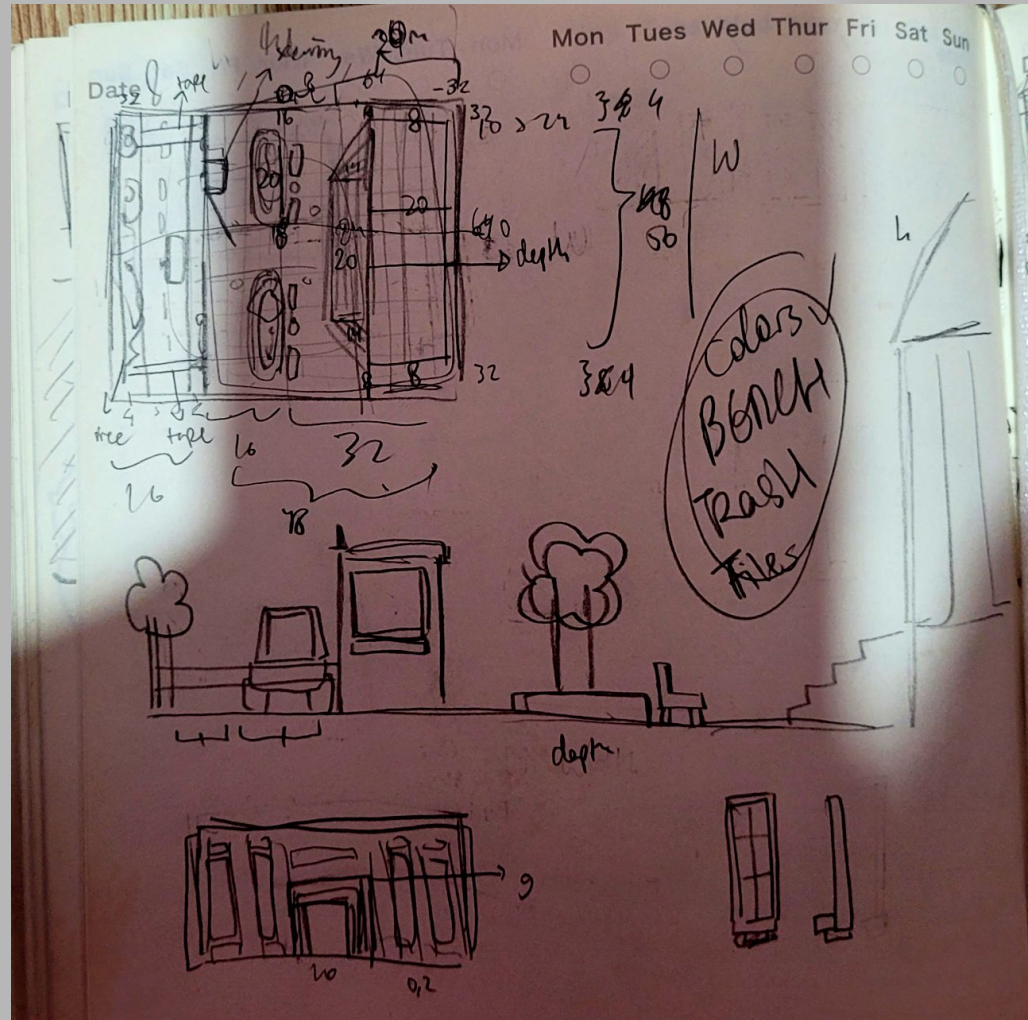

The Museum building is inspired by the Metropolitan Museum of Art in New York and the British Museum in London.

Inspirations

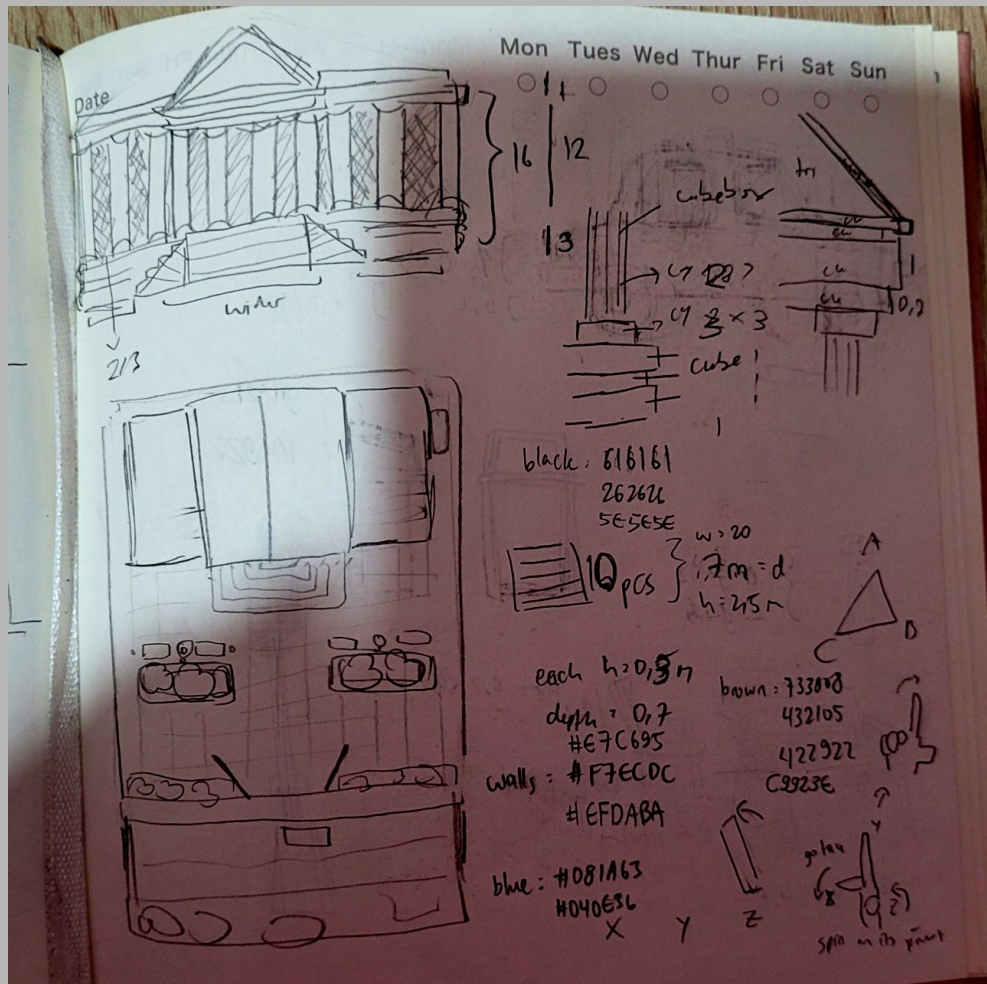

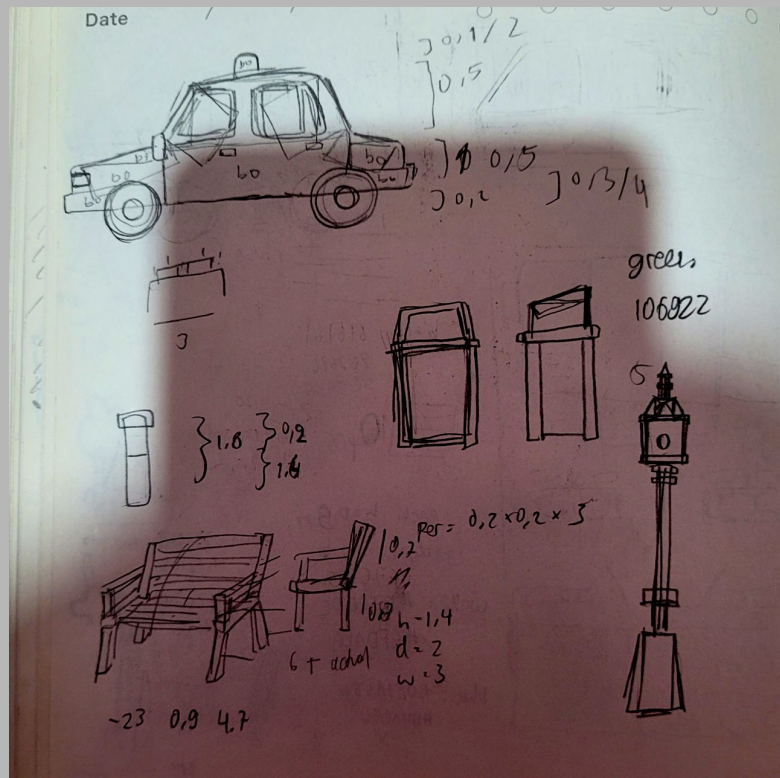

Sketches / Blueprint

I made the planning of how it'll look like overall before starting. Some were changed so they (sometimes) won't be accurate to the final design. For the more complex designs, I've broken them down into simple geometric shapes so the creation process won't be difficult.

Sketches / Blueprint

Note

Since I have around 1000 lines of code I won't be going through each of them in extreme complex detail.

Unless the build is made creatively to simplify the process, I won't be explaining in detail. Most of the stuff are built straightforwardly like legos anyway

For the ones with a more difficult / intricate build, I've broken them down in my sketches into the basic geometric shapes. Please refer back to those slides

1. Basic stuff

The first two lines are optional. Third line is my reference of a human for proportions. Fourth line is the ground. Fifth line is sky.

2. Museum

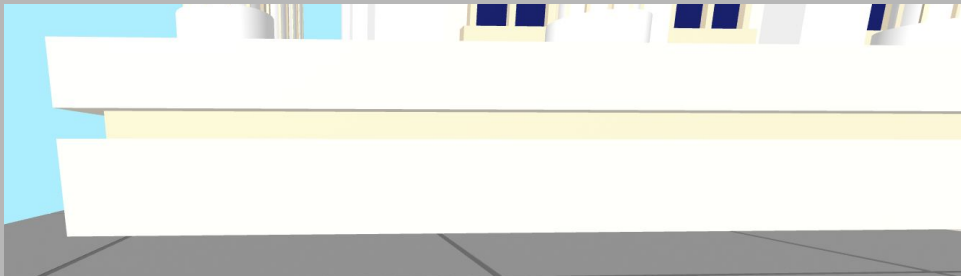

The entire museum consists of only boxes, cylinders, and 2 triangles (for roof)

Started with the base at the very bottom. Then staircase.

Pillar uses cylinder as base, and then added 3 boxes inside the cylinder, each of them rotated by +30 on the y-axis. So the 4 sharp corner of each boxes will protrude out of the cylinder to make the details. Repeated another 13 times.

2. Pavement

I made a darker colored base covering the entire platform, and then layered lighter colored boxes / tiles on top of it. I made `<a-entity>` for one row, then duplicate it another 11 times and changing the z-axis only. For the tiles hidden under the museum building I erase them so there won't be too many unnecessary lines of code that won't even be seen.

3. Garden

I made two different tree models so they don't look too repetitive. Then they are both duplicated another 1 time.

The bush also has 2 models.

Garden lights are repeated another 2 times.

All of these are duplicated and moved 38m on the x-axis.

4. Clouds

I copied the bush's codes for the clouds and changed the color to white. There is only one model for the cloud, however I changed the radius and rotated some of them by 180 on the y-axis so it looks like it has variety.

I scatter them across the sky until they look as natural as they could be

5. Lamppost

I divide the lamppost into two sections; the stick part and the lamp part. Other than that, the remaining build/detail is pretty straightforward.

I duplicate this one more time and placed it on the other garden.

Consists of cylinder, box, and cone. I simply rotated some of them.

10. Car

These are the codes for the BASE of the car, only using boxes. To make it as realistic as possible (so it doesn't just look like boxes stacked on each other), I added more boxes and rotated them. Refer back to my “sketches” slide for the broken down geometric shapes
